Theater Improvisation Intensive

Bella Albers & Julia Hilmo

Ages 10+

Class fee: $120

Supply fee: $ 0

Theater Improvisation (or "Improv") is a hilarious and dynamic form of theater arts where everything about a scene (or sometimes even a full show!) is created right on the spot. That's right. Can you imagine a play where absolutely nothing has been planned in advance or written down? Your imagination has all the tools you need to give a wonderful, thoughtful, and cohesive performance.

In Theater Improvisation Intensive, we will explore a huge, exciting variety of theater games.

Together, we will dive into the different "building blocks" of improv, giving you tools and building your confidence to work with other actors in creating scenes on the spot. We will focus on exploring physicality and expression, comedy and comedic timing, saying "yes" and "listening" in a theater sense, and most importantly having LOTS of fun! Once you have explored theater improvisation, you will quickly find that it applies to all of theater arts education. Learning improv is a fun and fascinating way to "crack the code" on what makes theater arts so compelling and powerful. Best of all, the skills you learn in improv - such as really listening to your fellow actors, being present in the moment, and working together to creatively move a scene forward, are all valuable skills for real life. We can't wait to see what creative ideas we all come up with as a class! Actors will also get the chance to share their improv skills with the CHC community by doing a short showcase at the end of the quarter.

Foundations in Personal Finance

Dana Hepler

Ages 15+

Class fee: $75

Supply fee: $40-55 (depending on number of students)

Teens will learn the money skills they'll use now and for the rest of their lives so they'll have a solid foundation when they're out on their own. But it doesn't just stop there. This course trades boring formulas and financial theories for time-tested principles, real-life applications and humor (yes, personal finance can be fun!). This class will start later than the other classes, when H.S. Adulthood class ends, February 7th. !Like Adulthood, this class can be counted as a .5 high school credit
